

To whom it may concern

We have just had the inside of our home painted by David and are thrilled with the result.

We were very comfortable with David working inside our home, he showed respect for our belonging and took due care when moving these and our furniture to carry out the work.

He was reliable, arriving for work on time and at times that had been negotiated and completed the work within the time specified as per quote.

The job was completed in a friendly but professional manner and we would happily recommend him to others.
